1ST SESSION

H. RES. 239

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

FEBRUARY 9, 1967

Mr. RIVERS submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Rules

RESOLUTION

1       Resolved, That, effective from January 3, 1967, the 2       Committee on Armed Services, acting as a whole or by sub-
3       committee appointed by the chairman of the Committee on 4       Armed Services, is authorized to conduct a full and complete
5       investigation and study of all matters—

6               (1) relating to the procurement, use, and disposi-
7       tion of material, equipment, supplies, and services, and 8       the acquisition, use, and disposition of real property, by 9       or within the Department of Defense;

10              (2) relating to the military and civilian personnel
11       under the jurisdiction of the Department of Defense;

V

1           (3) involving the laws, regulations, and directives
2           administered by or within the Department of Defense;

3           (4) involving the use of appropriated and non-
4           appropriated funds by or within the Department of 5           Defense;

6           (5) relating to scientific research and development
7           in support of the armed services; and

8           (6) all other matters within the legislative juris-
9           diction conferred by law or the Rules of the House of 10          Representatives upon the Committee on Armed Services.

11         The committee shall report to the House (or to the 12         Clerk of the House if the House is not in session) as soon 13         as practicable during the present Congress the results of 14         its investigation and study, together with such recommenda-
15         tions as it deems advisable.

16         For the purpose of carrying out this resolution the com-17         mittee or subcommittee is authorized to sit and act during the 18         present Congress at such times and places within or without 19         the United States, whether the House has recessed, or has 20         adjourned, to hold such hearings, and to require by subpena
21         or otherwise, the attendance and testimony of such witnesses
22         and the production of such books, records, correspondence,
23         memorandums, papers, and documents, as it deems neces-
24         sary. Subpenas may be issued under the signature of the 25         chairman of the committee or any member of the committee

3

1 designated by him, and may be served by any person
2 designated by such chairman or member.

3       Notwithstanding section 1754 of title 22, United States
4 Code, or any other provision of law, local currencies owned
5 by the United States shall be made available to the Com-
6 mittee on Armed Services of the House of Representatives
7 and employees engaged in carrying out their official duties
8 under section 190 (d) of title 2, United States Code: Pro-
9 vided, That (1) no member or employee of said committee
10 shall receive or expend local currencies for subsistence in any 11 country at a rate in excess of the maximum per diem rate set
12 forth in section 502 (b) of the Mutual Security Act of 1954,
13 as amended by Public Law 88-633, approved October 7, 14 1964; (2) no member or employee of said committee shall 15 receive or expend an amount for transportation in excess of 16 actual transportation costs; (3) no appropriated funds shall 17 be expended for the purpose of defraying expenses of mem-
18 bers of said committee or its employees in any country where 19 counterpart funds are available for this purpose.

20       Each member or employee of said committee shall make 21 to the chairman of said committee an itemized report showing
22 the number of days visited in each country whose local cur-
23 rencies were spent, the amount of per diem furnished, and 24 the cost of transportation if furnished by public carrier, or if 25 such transportation is furnished by an agency of the United
